Dear Hugh:

I regret not taking the time sooner to write telling you about our work. I know of your continuing interest and have so deeply appreciated your regular contributions to the program. Many people here remember you with deep feeling and respect. I have them ask about you from time to time.

Thank you so much for this most recent contribution of $20.00. I know this represents an intelligent, sensitive decision on your part as to how you are going to spend your money to advance the Kingdom of God. It is because of the thoughtfulness that I know you have given to this contribution that I appreciate it so much.

I have been under great strain with the radio program due to having to be out of town so much as well as other responsibilities here with the local congregation. I am able to stay home more now, and I sense the responsibility even greater than before. Radio response has not been what I want it to be. It is looking much better, and I hope that within the next few years we will see the kind of radio program that can stagger this whole nation and the world. Your prayers to this end are earnestly requested.

Sue and I cherish our friendship with you. There is no one we feel closer to than you. I have the deepest respect for your family and send them my very special regards. Thank you so much for the many, many ways you have encouraged and have been a part of my ministry.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
